Princesa Ico semi-sweet comes from an interesting blend of malvasía volcánico together with two of the island's minority varieties, muscatel and diego. The grapes are slightly overripe in the field, to select the best bunches essential to make a must rich in nuances.

COLOUR

Its colour is pale straw yellow, transparent and bright.

NOSE

Of intense aroma, frank and clean of floral tones, with power of tropical fruits and soft vanilla.

MOUTH

Great intensity in the mouth, perfectly balancing between fruity acidity and sweetness. Leaves a marked, long and pleasant aftertaste.

It combines excellently with foie-grass, dishes prepared with bittersweet sauces and curries, fish and some sweet palate desserts.
