Esencia de Yaiza fruity is a blend of minority varieties from Lanzarote. The muscatel gives it great aromatic intensity, the diego contributes freshness and balance and the malvasía volcánica completes its unique personality of a semi-sweet, young and fun wine.

COLOUR

Its tone is pale yellow with greenish reflections, clean and transparent, qualities that reflect its youth and freshness.

NOSE

High intensity, citrus notes of orange blossom, jasmine and bergamot evoke the sweetness of our climate. Without excessive complication, it is distinguished by the marked aroma of each of its varieties.

MOUTH

In the mouth it shows the perfect balance between the rest of its natural sugars and the freshness provided by the varieties diego and malvasía volcánica. Of easy passage and long freshness, it is ideal for those moments that invite to share.

It is a wine made from minority varieties in Lanzarote, whose combination confer it diversity and character. For a young and daring public that likes to experience new sensations enjoying a glass of wine.
